Pearl Necklace SWAPS

In 1914 Juliette sold a strand of rare matched pearls to pay the rent for the national office. She said “Jewels are not important, but my Girl Scouts are, they need money more than I need pearls”.

Materials

- Thread
- Pearl Beads
- Scissors

Steps

1. Thread 8-10 pearl beads onto a string of embroidery thread. After stringing the beads, cut off excess string - leaving just enough to tie both ends together.
2. Loop the mini bracelet onto a safety pin.
3. Then create your own tag for your SWAP, with a favorite fact or quote regarding Juliette Lowe and be sure to add your troop number.
4. Final step: Pin it affectionately somewhere!

Games

Taffy Pull

Here's something to chew on: When Girl Scouts founder Juliette Gordon Low was 10-years-old, she and her family had an old fashioned taffy pull, making molasses taffy at home. As they worked on pulling the taffy, which aerates it and makes it softer, one of the young boys participating noticed that the molasses taffy and Juliette's hair had the same pretty, dark chestnut color in common.

He convinced her to let him braid some of the taffy into her long locks. Well, you can imagine what happened next. When the taffy and Juliette's hair refused to let go of one another, she was soon sporting a fashionable new short haircut.

Directions

1. Use a piece of taffy from the store or try making your own!
2. Working as a team or on your own, figure out how to stretch one piece of taffy into the longest single piece of taffy possible.

Use a measuring tape to figure out how far you can pull that taffy!

Hoop Roll

The hoop roll is another relay race. Each team will be given a hula hoop and must roll it from one end of the play area to the other and then back again. Each girl gets a turn, and whichever team finishes first wins.

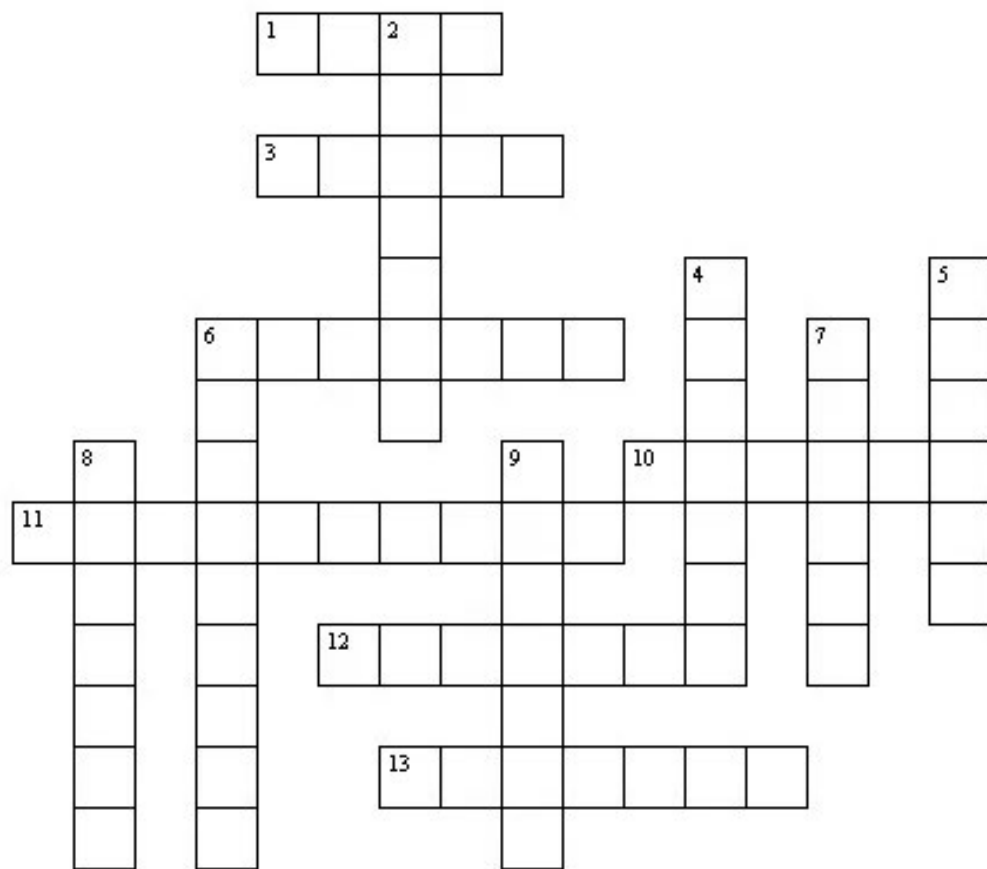

Pancake Toss Relay Race

Divide girls into teams. Each team will need a plate, meant to represent a frying pan, and an oversized pancake. The girls should race in assigned lanes as they toss their pancake into the air and catch it on the plate.

Kim's Game

Kim's Game is a scavenger hunt. Show the girls a tray with many items on it and explain that each of those items is also hidden somewhere in the room or location that the party is being held. Send the girls out to find as many of the objects as they can.

Candle Lighting Ceremony

Materials

- Candle (1 per girl)
- Matches/lighter
- Bucket with water

Steps

1. Have girls stand in a circle and give each girl one unlit candle. Explain you are doing a special Girl Scout ceremony. Ask girls to be respectful and quiet.
2. Have the narrator read the introduction below.

“Long ago a special ceremony was formed. Juliette Low wanted the girls of her original troop to carry a special spark with them as their Girl Scout group broke up. Some from the girls were moving away, some working to help their families and some wanted to help a group of girls a little younger than themselves. Whatever their reasons, Juliette knew no other group would ever quite be the same. As the girls stood in a circle holding candles they had made, Juliette knew what spark it was that she wanted to pass on. She lit her candle and spoke.”
3. Have the adult reading Juliette Low’s part read the passage below.

“With this candle I, Juliette Low, give you each something very special to pass on. As I light the candle on my right I ask each of you to light the candle to your right and pass it on. I want you to carry this thought with you wherever you go. This is the ETERNAL FLAME of Girl Scouts.”
4. Light the candles, starting with the adult reading the Juliette Low part and going around the circle to the right.
5. Have the adult reading Juliette Low’s part read the passage below.

“Now that we all have the ETERNAL FLAME, let’s say the Girl Scout Promise. Then we will think about and share our favorite memories from our time together in Girl Scouts.”
6. Recite the Girl Scout Promise and give girls time to share their favorite memories.
7. Have the adult reading Juliette Low’s part read the passage below.

“I will hold my candle up and as I do, you will all raise yours and we will blow them out together.”

Recipes

Home making was a large part of women's lives in the 1800's. Many Girl Scout badges were designed to help girls learn these important skills, such as milking cows, animal trapping and butchering, cooking over open fires, and budgeting rations. Over the years those badges have not only inured but evolved to include kitchen safety, meal planning, learning to eat healthy, gardening and exotic cuisines around the world.

Daisy Sing-a-long

Hurrah for Daisy

Sung to the tune of "My Darling Clementine"

Long ago in London England
Daisy Low met Baden-Powell
Started planning hard for scouting
Where we all are members now

CHORUS:

Hurrah for Daisy
Hurrah for Daisy
Hur-rah for Daisy Low
Started Girl Scouts in our country
In Savannah, long ago
Took us camping
Taught us cooking
Working hard for me and you
Set a trail and set the table
Are some things we learned to do
(Chorus)
As a Daisy, Brownie, Junior
In Cadettes and Seniors too
Even as Girl Scout Ambassadors
We will keep our Promise true
(Chorus)

Juliette Gordon Low

Sung to the tune of "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star"

Chorus:

Juliette, Juliette Gordon Low
Founded the Girl Scouts long ago
From Savannah she did roam
But she always called it home
(Chorus)
Married a man named Willy Low
And off to England they did go.
There she met Lord Baden-Powell
Starting the Boy Scouts was his goal
When she came back to the USA
She called her cousin right away
She Founded the Girl Scouts in 1912,
Served her country, served it well
(Chorus)
Girl Scouts she came here to start
And I thank her from my heart.
Thank you, thank you, Daisy Low
For starting the Girl Scouts long ago!

Daisy

Sung to the tune of "A Bicycle Built for Two"

Daisy, Daisy,
We honor your mem'ry true.
We are Girl Scouts,
All because of you.

We follow the path you started,
And live the law you charted.
We grow and grow
Dear Juliette Low,
America's proud of you!
