

Adventure Box: Laura Ingalls Wilder

Laura Ingalls Wilder is a pioneering figure in American children's literature, known for her influential Little House series, which vividly recounts her childhood experiences and has significantly shaped the popular image of the American frontier. By ordering this box, you can immerse yourself in the world of Laura and her family through games they might have played, crafts and toys they might have made, and recipes from their time. Laura's family lived in DeSmet, SD, a place rich with history and activities to explore. It's an ideal destination for a memorable trip with a troop or family!
