Wayuphere! Winter Camp

Explore the rugged Turtle Mountains on the mitigoshi-waashegami-zaaga'igan "Lake of clear waters and oaks"! Learn winter survival skills with experienced instructors, and put them to the test. Go on a night hike into the frozen north, to learn about the winter ecosystem, and animals. Go cross country skiing into the heart of the park, with ranger guides. Come discover why this is the hidden gem, of North Dakota and Canadian border.

Really want to show your survival skills? Primitive camping will be offered as an option for older girls and adults on the last night in camp.

Important: Primitive campers need to bring their own tents and be accompanied by registered adult. Adults will be expected to help with activities and chaperoning. Tubing at Winter Park is available as an add-on option at time of registration for $20. Daisies invited to special session. No tag-a-longs.
